BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Incloses plans & estimate for Rs 68435 for the above purpose & that personally he is of opinion that there is no urgency for a new building at present but that a sum of Rs 20000 may be allotted every year for altering the existing buildings so as to suit the present day requirements on the lines adopted recently for remodelling the female prison in the Central jail, and that in addition a cellular for hardened criminals may also be built.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

SIR,

In reply to your Memo No. J.1094/Pris.16-02-2 dated 30th 1906, desiring me to submit, in consultation with the Chief Engineer in Mysore, proposals for erecting a new Central Jail at Bangalore, I have the honor to forward the enclosures for favor c orders and to state as under.

2. The principles that should guide us in the construction and arrangement of Jail buildings are:-

(1) The site selected should be the best to be obtained in the locality, free from objectionable surroundings, collections of water, swamps &ca.,

(2) The surface drainage must be thorough.

(3) The subsoil water level must not rise rapidly within a few feet of the ground level on the fall of seasonal rains.

(4) The wards or cells must be placed in echelon or radiati from one centre. The object being to avoid obstruction to thorough ventilation by contiguous buildings or high divisional or surrounding walls.

(5) The wards or barracks should have a plinth of at least 1½ feet above ground level.

The Secy. to the Govt. of H. H.

No. 99 Encl: 2.
F. 34

Dated 17th January 1907.

Subject.

Submits plan & estimate for the construction of a new Central Jail and gives his opinion thereon.

3. The site of the present Jail is unobjectionable from any point of view enumerated above.

4. The cost of the new Jail proposed to be constructed is now preliminarily estimated at Rs. 768435/- and with the usual revised and altered estimates before completion, would not, I feel sure fall short of nine lacs of rupees.

5. Personally I do not believe the urgency for a new Central Jail is nearly as great as is the necessity for the following:-

(a) A decent Hospital, well appointed and thoroughly equipped with modern scientific appliances in an important centre like the town of Mysore.

(b) The renovation or alteration of the Mysore Jail in accordance with present and urgent requirements.

(c) A well appointed Opthalmic or Eye hospital in Bangalore.

6. The site of the present Jail is magnificently situated. What is wanted to satisfy the first of the principles enumerated above is the acquisition and demolition of the old bandy or cart-stand and the Chattram or Choultry of Kitchiah. This will free the premises from all objectionable surroundings. The space that ther becomes available may be utilized for constructing warders lines thereon.

7. The conveniences afforded by the present or existing site are :-

(i) Nearness to Courts to where the prisoners have to be marched while undergoing trial and the greater chances of prisoners being locked up for the night before it gets dark.

(ii) The difficulty of escape from Police escort while on the march to and from Courts of law, as the town being near, a hue and cry will collect people and facilitate ready capture.

(iii) Proximity to Police Stations and City Railway Station.

8. I would propose that instead of spending such a heavy sum as over eight lacs of rupees on a new Jail a sum of twenty thousand rupees be allotted every year for the alteration of the existing barracks so as to suit the present day requirements.

9. The lines of improvement of these barracks should follow those adopted by the D.P.W., in recently renovating the female prison in the Bangalore Central Jail.

10. In addition to the alteration of existing barracks, there ought to be cubicles for the incarceration during nights of noted or habitual or turbulent convicts. Space required for this purpose may be economised by building a couple of rows of upstoried cubicles as they have got in Coimbatore and Salem Jails.

In reply to your No.553/F.34 dated 13th May 1907, I have the onor to state that on an appointed day the Deputy Commissioner angalore District, the Executive Engineer, Bangalore Division, r. J.Cook M.A., Principal of the Central College and myself met t the spot and Mr. Cook and myself explained to the other two officers our wants in regard to the space needed for the extension of the College Hostel and Jail compounds by acquiring the chattram and cart stand.

We found that the owner or rather the senior member present of the late Kitchiah's family was not agreeable to parting with the entire block of buildings and all. He was anxious that the chuttram portion and a temple of Anjaneya situated near by should be left undisturbed.

The Deputy Commissioner and the Executive Engineer have, I believe, been deliberating upon the question and the total amount needed for the acquisition has not been definitely settled as yet

When I hear from the Executive Engineer in regard to the above point, I shall ask him to kindly furnish me with plans and estimates for the construction of the warders' lines (as I am not an Engineer) and shall submit the same to you.

Being of opinion that the enclosure as proposed was too small, I invited Mr.Puttanna Chetty, Councillor, to inspect the site with me. I pointed out how, at little or indeed any additional cost, about one rood of the existing garden might be added to it - also that it would be desirable to have a separate entrance to this enclosure - so that under no circumstances should Juveniles mix with or even see adult prisoners.
